The 1st Annual Conference of CAERE
Chinese Association of Environmental and Resource Economists
August 24-26, 2017
Renmin University of China, Beijing, China

The First Annual Conference of the Chinese Association of Environmental and Resource Economists (CAERE) will be held in Beijing, China, during August 24-26, 2017. The conference will cover a broad spectrum of topics in environmental, resource and ecological economics, and the papers can be either theoretical or empirical. Researchers all over the world are welcome to attend the conference. For those who are interested in presenting papers in the conference, please send full papers or extended abstracts in PDF version either in English or in Chinese

To: caere@qq.com

By: March 1, 2017.

Please use the format “Your Name + Title of Your Paper” in the email subject to submit your papers or abstracts. Decisions about the paper acceptance for presentation will be made by April 1, 2017. Separate sessions in English and Chinese will be organized in the conference.

Registered in Hongkong, China, in 2016, CAERE is a not-for-profit professional organization, promoting research cooperation and academic exchange worldwide in the areas of environmental, ecological and resource economics. The conference host, Renmin University of China (RUC), will cover the cost of conference logistics. No conference registration fee is required. Participants will be responsible for their own travel costs and accommodations.

For those who live outside of China but would like to attend the conference, please send your name, affiliation and your country/region name, to caere@qq.com, as soon as you have decided to attend the conference, in order for the conference to be better prepared. Formal registration will start after April 1, 2017. Any questions regarding the conference, or the association, should be sent to email: caere@qq.com.
